

Electrical Emergency and Breakdown Cover

Terms and Conditions

This policy provides insurance cover in relation to emergencies and in relation to other domestic incidents. These elements are as follows:
Electricians

These terms and conditions and the policy schedule form a 12 month contract of insurance between you and the Underwriter. HomeServe will arrange and administer the insurance which is set out in your policy schedule. Please read this document carefully along with any enclosed documents so you can make sure you know what you are covered for under your policy. If you have any queries, please call HomeServe on the customer services number, as shown on your policy schedule. Certain words within this policy have a particular meaning. Each time we use these words they will have the same meaning wherever they are used in your policy. Please see the General Definitions and Policy Coverage sections for further details.

Important information concerning your policy has been highlighted using warning triangles.

A. KEY QUESTIONS

How do I make a claim?

1. If an incident occurs at your property, which is covered by your policy, please call the claims number shown on your policy schedule and we will arrange for the incident to be dealt with in accordance with the terms and conditions of your policy.
2. Claims must be made by you or a person calling on your behalf. Please call us as soon as you are aware of the incident. We will not be able to cover the costs of any work carried out by persons not authorised by us in advance.
3. Please have your policy number ready when you call. The engineer may also ask to see your policy schedule when he/she arrives at your property.

4. If you have a 'with excess' policy, you will have to pay the amount detailed on your policy schedule each time you make a claim. We will then cover the cost of the rest of the claim up to the applicable claims limit. Excess payment(s) will be taken when you call to make a claim. We can only accept payment using the following cards: MasterCard, Maestro, Visa or Visa Delta. Each area of policy coverage, as listed in section B, has its own claims limit(s). An excess payment is required for each new unrelated claim (i.e. not arising directly from the same incident). Your excess payment(s) will be refunded if for whatever reason the claim is cancelled prior to the engineer attending or, where after initial inspection, the incident is not covered by your policy.

Please be aware that you cannot make a claim under your policy during any exclusion period. If applicable, the exclusion period(s) relevant to your policy are set out within your policy schedule.

How long is my policy for?

Your policy will continue for the period of twelve months, unless it is cancelled by you or us before then. You have certain rights to cancel your policy, and these are set out below under the heading 'how can I cancel my policy'. Our cancellation rights are also set out below under the headings 'How can HomeServe cancel my policy' and 'What if I miss a payment'.

How can I cancel my policy?

If you wish to cancel your policy; you (as the named policy holder) or an authorised representative, must contact us by calling the customer service number or writing to us at our freepost address.

You may cancel your policy at anytime and choose an appropriate cancellation date. Depending on when you cancel and whether you have made an insurance claim or received any non-insured services, any refund of premium paid to you or premium owed by you may be calculated as follows:

Insurance premium

Within your cancellation period:

- If you have not made a claim, you will receive a full refund,
- If you have made a claim, you will receive a refund less an amount for the number of days you have been on cover

Outside your cancellation period:

- If you have not made a claim, you will receive a refund less an amount for the number of days you have been on cover
- If you have made a claim, you will not receive a refund and must pay any remaining insurance premium due for the term of the policy.

If you are a monthly payer, upon cancellation, we will ask you to choose an appropriate cancellation date to ensure any owed premium payment can be collected. Claims can continue to be made until the cancellation date chosen.

How can HomeServe cancel my policy?

HomeServe may cancel your policy on behalf of the Underwriter in the following circumstances:

1. by giving you at least 7 days' notice in writing to the last address provided to us:
 - (a) if you are seriously in breach of the terms of your policy. Examples of a serious breach include: failure to make a payment despite contact from us; submitting a fraudulent claim or if you use threatening or abusive behaviour towards our engineers or staff;
 - (b) if you fail to provide accurate and complete information in accordance with the Consumer Insurance (Disclosure and Representations) Act 2012 - please see Consumer Insurance Act later in this document.
2. in any circumstances stated in the Policy Coverage section.

You may have several policies administered through HomeServe. In the future we may wish to consolidate these separate policies into one agreement. This will not affect your cover or your premiums. In such circumstances we reserve the right to cancel one or more of your existing policies and to transfer you to the new agreement. If you do not agree to this please let HomeServe know by calling the Customer Services number shown on your policy schedule.

What if I miss a payment?

If you fail to make a payment of premium on the due date, your policy may be suspended and you will not be able to make a claim. HomeServe will notify you in writing within 5 working days of the date on which a payment was due if you fail to make a payment. If you do not pay the requested amount within 30 days of the due date, your policy will be cancelled. Please see the "How can HomeServe cancel my policy?" section for your liability to pay any premium to us under the policy. If you want to make a claim under your policy whilst your policy coverage is suspended, you will be required to pay any outstanding premiums before an engineer will be dispatched to your property. When your policy is cancelled, you will need to pay any outstanding premium to us.

What if I change address?

You are responsible for informing HomeServe of a change of your address so that cover can be transferred to your new property. Please phone us on the customer services number as shown on your policy schedule or write to HomeServe at the Freepost address, to advise us of your new address. We will check with you whether your cover is appropriate for your new property before it is transferred.

How do I renew?

HomeServe will contact you in writing before your policy expires to arrange the renewal of your policy. At the same time we will review your premium and advise you of your renewal premium amount. Your claims history will be considered as part of the premium review. We reserve the right to adjust your premium to reflect any changes in the rate of tax applicable to it. HomeServe reserves the right to refuse renewal of any individual policy and we will inform you before your policy expires if we choose to do so. If you do not wish to renew your policy please give us a call on the customer services number shown on your policy schedule before the policy start date.

How can I complain?

Only the named policy holder(s) or an authorised representative can make a formal complaint. If you wish to register a complaint, please contact us in writing at Freepost, RLYC-LXAL-GEEH, Customer Relations Department, HomeServe, Cable Drive, Walsall WS2 7BN or by calling us on the customer services number shown on your policy schedule. Every effort will be made to resolve your complaint to your satisfaction as quickly as possible, but in any event within 8 weeks at the latest. If we cannot resolve your complaint within this time, we will write to you. If you cannot settle your complaint with us, you may be entitled to refer it to the Financial Ombudsman Service (www.financial-ombudsman.org.uk). We will give you the information you need to refer your complaint.

- r) any incidents where the root cause of the problem stems from a communal area that you do not have sole responsibility for

General Conditions

Our guarantee

Under this policy, the workmanship and any part(s) used by us to solve the problem will be guaranteed for a period of twelve months from the date the work is carried out.

Parking restrictions

When making a claim, you will be asked if there are any parking restrictions including need for a parking ticket, a parking permit or inability to park within close proximity to your property. Where no parking is available, this may affect our ability to service your claim.

Overlapping cover

If you have several different policies, some elements of your cover may overlap. In the instances of overlapping cover, we will not issue a refund.

Creating access

Upon arrival at your property, the engineer will locate the source of the incident. If direct access is not available, for instance if there are floor tiles or floorboards in the way, the engineer will need to create access. If you want our engineer to do this, you will be asked to confirm it in writing while the engineer is at your property. Unless stated in the 'What is Covered?' sub-sections of the Policy Coverage section, this policy does not provide you with cover for any damage which may be caused to the property, its contents, fixtures, fittings, floorings or sanitary ware (unless such damage is as a result of our engineer's negligence). If you do not want our engineer to create access, we will be unable to progress your claim until you have arranged for access to be made.

Eligibility

Upon application you must confirm you are responsible for paying for repairs to the property, the type of property (e.g. house or flat) and whether it is used as your private residence or is rented to others (with you being the landlord).

These terms and conditions do not provide cover for mobile or park homes and dedicated full time business premises; such as hotels, multiple room B&Bs, factories, shops, office buildings and pubs. Where the property is a flat any communal or service duct areas are not covered.

These terms and conditions are applicable for properties located within the United Kingdom comprising England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland (excluding Isle of Man and the Channel Islands).

Please check that you do not have cover elsewhere before taking out this cover to avoid overlap with another provider.

Promotional Offers

If you cancel a policy and you (which in, this context, includes another individual living at the property) then purchase a policy with equivalent features then you will not be eligible for any new customer promotional offers.

The law that applies to this policy

1. This agreement is governed by the laws of England and Wales, except where the property is located in Scotland, in which case the laws of Scotland will apply. All correspondence will be in English.

Your contract(s)

Your contract with the Underwriter

HomeServe arranges and administers your insurance cover. If you need to contact HomeServe regarding your contract, please phone the customer services number shown on your policy schedule or write to the Freepost address.

This insurance cover is provided by the Underwriter. You must co-operate with the Underwriter in obtaining reimbursement of any costs they incur under the terms of this cover, which may have been caused by the action of a third party, against whom you have legal right of action.

1. This policy is sold, arranged and administered by HomeServe.
2. HomeServe will agree service standards for the delivery of cover provided by the insurance.
3. HomeServe will collect the premium in accordance with your instructions. Any monies relating to the insurance services that are held by us (including premium collected by us, premium to be refunded to you and claims monies) shall be held by us on behalf of the Underwriter.

4. HomeServe will only amend the terms and conditions for legal or regulatory reasons. Where this change benefits you, we will make the change immediately and notify you within 28 days. In all other cases we will write to advise you of the change at least 28 days prior to any change taking effect. If the changes do not benefit you and you wish to cancel your policy, you may do so and we will follow the procedure as outlined in section A, under the heading 'How can I cancel my policy?'
5. Despite the provisions of 1 above, HomeServe will write to you, if in the future it enters into an agreement with a new Underwriter(s) for all or part of your policy to confirm the details of the new Underwriter and give you details of any changes to the terms and conditions of your policy. These changes would be effective upon renewal of your policy from your new policy start date. You hereby authorise HomeServe to transfer any personal data to a new Underwriter, including data defined as 'sensitive personal data' under the applicable data protection laws, and consent to the new Underwriter being able to offer continuation of insurance cover to you. If at any time you wish to withdraw your agreement to this, please let HomeServe know by calling the customer services number shown on your policy schedule.
6. Despite the provision of 1 above, HomeServe will write to you, if in the future it transfers in full or in part the arranging and administration of your policy to another arranger and/or administrator, to confirm the details of the new provider and give you details of any changes to the terms and conditions of this service. These changes would be effective upon renewal of your policy from your new policy start date. You hereby authorise HomeServe to transfer data for the purposes set out above, including data defined as 'sensitive personal data' under the applicable data protection laws and consent to the new arranger and/or administrator being able to offer continuation of service to you. If at any time you wish to withdraw your agreement to this, please let HomeServe know by calling the customer services number shown on your policy schedule.

Compensation Scheme

Both the Underwriter of this policy and HomeServe are covered by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS). The FSCS is a safety net for customers if we or the Underwriter are unable to meet our liabilities. You may be entitled to compensation in these circumstances depending on the details of any claim. If entitled to compensation you would be covered for 90% of the claim, without any upper limit. Further information about the scheme arrangement is available from FSCS.

Consumer Insurance Act

You are required by the provisions of the Consumer Insurance (Disclosure and Representations) Act 2012 to take reasonable care to supply accurate and complete answers to all the questions you were asked at the time of insuring with us. It is important that you check the information you have provided and notify us immediately of any changes to these details. Failure to provide accurate and complete information to the best of your knowledge may result in increased premiums, refusal of a claim or your policy being cancelled. You are required to update us with any changes to the information you provided at the time you asked us to insure you.

This information can be supplied in large print, braille or audio on request.
